

Keyworth U3A Listening to Music
Programme for January to April 2019

Our sessions are held in the Centenary Lounge on alternate Wednesday afternoons. We sign in from 2 p.m. to be ready for a 2.15 start, and finish at 4 p.m. We ask for a donation of £1.50 at each session to cover the cost of hiring the room. All Keyworth U3A members are very welcome to join us. If you would like further information, please contact me.

Bill Cooper 0115 8787060 billcooper270@ntlworld.com

9 January The Celtic Fringe

Alan Spooner introduces music inspired by or related to the Celtic west of the British Isles.

23 January Final thoughts

Bill Cooper introduces music composed towards the end of composers' lives, including pieces by Mozart, Bizet, Puccini and Richard Strauss.

6 February Great Orchestras of the World: The Vienna Philharmonic

John Stuckey traces the history of this great orchestra and plays some of its recordings.

20 February These we have missed

Robin Stocker plays music that has not so far featured in any of our 250 or so programmes, not all of it unfamiliar.

6 March Hector Berlioz: musical revolutionary and a fantastic composer in every respect

The great French composer died on 8 March 1869 – 150 years ago. Bill Cooper celebrates this anniversary with a look at his life and music.

20 March Ten Decades of Music: 1900-2000

Peter Stafford will be our guide as we listen to music of the 20th Century.

3 April A time and a Place

A journey into the evocative power of music with Godfrey Kent.

17 April Curiosities and surprises

Lovely music – including pieces by the likes of Beethoven, Schumann, Brahms – but each piece having something odd about it. Introduced by Alan Spooner.