

Keyworth U3A Listening to Music
Programme for September to December 2022

Our sessions are held in the Centenary Lounge on alternate Wednesday afternoons. We sign in from 2 pm. to be ready for a 2.15 start, and finish at 4 pm. We ask for a donation of £1.50 at each session to cover the cost of hiring the room. All Keyworth U3A members are very welcome to join us. If you would like further information, please contact me.

Bill Cooper 0115 8787060 billcooper270@ntlworld.com

14 September Gabriel Fauré and Emmanuel Chabrier

French composers who were contemporaries and wrote tuneful but very different music. Introduced by Bill Cooper.

28 September Nottingham Concert Season 2022/23

Previewed by John Stuckey.

12 October Not just larks ascending – a survey of the perhaps surprising range of Vaughan Williams' music.

Introduced by Alan Spooner on the 150th anniversary of the composer's birth.

26 October A musical pot pourri

A varied selection of mainly classical pieces by Peter Stafford.

9 November Wolfgang Mozart – the man who could, and did, do everything.

Bill Cooper introduces music from all genres - orchestral, operatic, choral, chamber, instrumental, “light” - none of which has appeared in any of our previous programmes, but all of which is of the highest quality and interest.

23 November Music for Prospero's Island, perhaps?

Alan Spooner will explain his enigmatic title and introduce the music.

7 December Favourite Music for String Orchestra

Chosen by Robin Stocker.

21 December Members' Choice

Please bring a CD or CDs to share a track or two, or just come along to listen and enjoy.
