

- Science, Technology And Research Group 2025
- (STAR)

- Monday 3rd February : Colours of Nature - and our wellbeing

- Professor Bill Lockley (ex University of Surrey) from West Bridgford U3A has developed the use of isotopes to study the biochemistry of plant pigments and the mechanism of photosynthesis. How can we modify our diet to best maintain a healthy lifestyle in our later years?

- Monday 3rd March : Overhead Power Transmission Lines

Sean Buxton from the Edwalton & Gamston U3A will give a talk about the evolution, construction and refurbishment of National Grid overhead power lines. He will describe the components and site activities that are undertaken during re-furbishment.

- Monday 7th April : BGS Critical Minerals Unit

- Gavin Mudd Director of the BGS Critical Minerals Unit will give a talk on the work of the Unit .

- Contact : Martin Clarke email: mclarke7@btinternet.com

